

Mission:

We, The Arab Network for Civic Education "ANHRE", are an independent non-governmental Arab Network working to unify and coordinate efforts among different civil societies concerned with Human Rights and Citizenship Education to influence the policies, procedures, formal and non-formal regulations in order to ensure the adoption of legislations that respect Human Rights and dignity

Strategic Objectives:

- To contribute to influencing the policies, governmental and non-governmental regulations which guarantee the integration and the enforcement of Human Rights and Citizenship in formal and informal educational curriculum
- To empower Network members and build their capacities on Human Rights and Citizenship education
- To institutionalize the network and fortify its internal set-up to allow the network to conduct its work effectively

Partnership and Membership:

- A strategic partnership with The International Center for Human Rights Education– Equitas, Canada
- An official membership in the Global Campaign for Education for All- GCE
- An official membership in the Arab Campaign for Education for All- ACEA
- An official member in UNESCO's Collective Consultation of NGOs of Education for All (CCNGO/EFA)
